

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

BRIAN D. BRADLEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRISTIAN A. PRESTEEN, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:20-cv-00767-LK-BAT

ORDER GRANTING CONTINUANCE AND THIRD
REVISION OF JURY TRIAL AND PRETRIAL DEADLINES

The Court GRANTS the parties' third Stipulated Motion to Continue Trial Date (Dkt. 21), reschedules the Jury trial for January 17, 2023, and revises the case related deadlines currently set for 2022 as follows:

10 This order sets firm dates that can be changed only by order of the Court, not by 11 agreement of counsel for the parties. The Court will alter these dates only upon good cause
12 shown. Failure to complete discovery within the time allowed is not recognized as good cause. If 13 any of the dates identified in this Order or the Local Civil Rules fall on a weekend or federal 14 holiday, the act or event shall be performed on the next business day.

15 If the trial date assigned to this matter creates an irreconcilable conflict, counsel must
16 notify Deputy Clerk Andy Quach in writing within 10 days of the date of this Order and must set
17 forth the exact nature of the conflict. A failure to do so will be deemed a waiver. Counsel must 18 be prepared to begin trial on the date scheduled, but it should be understood that the trial may 19 have to await the completion of other cases.

20 DISCOVERY AND COOPERATION

21 As required by CR 37(a), all discovery matters are to be resolved by agreement if 22 possible. If there is a dispute the parties believe can be resolved through a phone conference with 23 the court, the parties should contact Andy Quach at (206) 370-8421 or via e-mail at:

Andy_Quach@wawd.uscourts.gov, as soon as possible. Counsel are also directed to cooperate in preparing the final pretrial order in the format required by CR 16.1, except as ordered below.

PRETRIAL STATEMENTS, ORDERS, AND EXHIBITS

The parties shall submit their respective pretrial statements and the agreed pretrial order in conformity with CR 16 and CR 16.1. The original and one copy of the trial exhibits are to be delivered to Judge King's chambers on the date the pretrial order is due. Each exhibit shall be clearly marked. The Court hereby alters the CR 16.1 procedure for numbering exhibits: plaintiff's exhibits shall be numbered consecutively beginning with 1; defendants' exhibits shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the next number not used by plaintiff. Duplicate documents shall not be listed twice. Once a party has identified an exhibit in the pretrial order, it may be used by any party. Each set of exhibits shall be submitted in a three-ring binder with appropriately numbered tabs.

PRIVACY POLICY

Under LCR 5.2(a), parties must redact the following information from documents and exhibits before they are filed with the Court:

- * Dates of Birth – redact to the year of birth, unless deceased.
- * Names of Minor Children – redact to the initials, unless deceased or currently over the age of 18.
- * Social Security or Taxpayer ID Numbers – redact in their entirety
- * Financial Accounting Information – redact to the last four digits.
- * Passport Numbers and Driver License Numbers – redact in their entirety.

SETTLEMENT

The Court designates this case for mediation under LCR 39.1(c) and the parties are directed to follow through with the procedures set forth in that rule. If this case settles, plaintiff's counsel shall notify Andy Quach at (206) 370-8421 or via e-mail at: Andy_Quach@wawd.uscourts.gov, as soon as possible. Pursuant to LCR 11(b), an attorney who fails to give the

1 Deputy Clerk prompt notice of settlement may be subject to such discipline as the Court deems
2 appropriate.
